

AEP Energy's Annual Environmental Disclosure Statement in New Jersey Utility Service Territories

Environmental Disclosure for the Electricity Products of AEP Energy, Inc.

Electricity Supplied from June 1, 2016 to May 31, 2017

Electricity can be generated in a number of ways with different impacts on the environment. The standardized environmental information shown below allows you to compare this electricity product with electricity products offered by other electric suppliers. The data shown below are default values and do not necessarily reflect the energy that AEP Energy, Inc. will supply.

Energy Conservation	Avoided Generation	Avoided Air Emissions
AEP Energy, Inc. is not investing in energy conservation measures for this electricity product. Energy conservation measures means less electricity needs to be generated and pollution is avoided.	0 kWh	0 tons CO ₂ 0 tons NO _x 0 tons SO ₂